the penal provisions of the Vaccination Act, in making adequate isolation arrangements, and in carrying propaganda to popularise vaccinations?

MELUR VILLAGE—PERSONS EJECTED FROM PORAMBOKES—PROVISION OF SITES FOR

217. Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi): Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) whether they have any definite scheme in regard to the ejection of persons who have been in occupation of poramboke lands in "Kunnu" in the Melur village;

(b) in fairness to these poor people, have the Government decided to give each of them some lands for building a house and for the necessary paddy cultivation;

(c) if so, what is the extent of land given to each person;

(d) is any difference made in the usual quota in the case of persons who have been very industrious and have made very valuable improvements in these poramboke lands;

(e) in the reallotment of plots to these persons, has it been followed as a principle that only the absolute minimum number of persons have been asked to demolish their old houses and to build new houses at distant places;

(f) what has been done with the fruit-trees and other Arazchas made by these people in the lands from which they had been ejected; in whom does the ownership of these properties vest?

Mr. A. Madhava Prabhu (Diwan Peishkar):

(a) Yes.

(b) Yes. Cultivation is not restricted to paddy.

(c) Extent ranging from 30 to 40 cents.

(d) No.

(e) Yes.

(f) The ownership of the trees vests in Government. The usufructs are proposed to be auctioned periodically.

Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi): May I know, a rough idea of the definite scheme that the Government have got regarding the ejection of these people.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. A. Madhava Prabhu (Diwan Peishkar): To give you that, I will have to read the whole proceedings which consists of about 4-5 pages of typed matter. If you are interested, I have no objection to show it to you.

Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi): I want only an idea.

Mr. A. Madhava Prabhu (Diwan Peishkar): It is a detailed process. About 100 and odd people had to be evicted and provided with house sites. There is the question of the re-alloting of these sites. A lot of these things have been dealt with in these 4 to 5 pages of the typed matter. You may read.....

Mr. A. V. Moothedan (Chalakkudi): Unless you allow me how can I read your confidential proceedings?

Mr. A. Madhava Prabhu (Diwan Peishkar): You come and ask me. I shall show you.

ANJAL TOLL-GATE—DIFFERENT RATES FOR CARTS IN DIFFERENT SEASONS

218. Mr. P. K. Madhava Menon (Narakkal): Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) whether it is a fact that bullock carts are charged a toll of 8 annas at Anjal on the Trichur-Ernakulam road, during monsoon period as against 4 as. during summer season;

(b) if so, what are the reasons for this extra toll during part of the year;

(c) whether any such extra toll is collected from other vehicles passing this toll-gate during the same period?

Mr. A. Madhava Prabhu (Diwan Peishkar):

(a) As per Government Notification dated 21st June 1921, the toll that can be levied on carts loaded with timber, stone, bamboos, bricks and tiles from 1st June to 30th September (Winter season) at all toll-gates is 8 as. as against 4 as. at other items. This is the case at all toll-gates. There is nothing special for the Anjal toll-gate. No instance of levy of this higher toll on carts loaded with other articles at the Anjal toll-gate has so far come to notice.

(b) This toll cannot be called extra toll. This is the normal toll for that season. During monsoon the steel-tyred bullock carts cause more damage to the

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly